#WeAreTrinity

Sharing God's love / Embracing God's children / Responding to the needs of the world

Welcome to Trinity on the Hill, a place where you will find open hearts, open minds, and open doors. We believe that as people of God, we can all share in God's love; a love that is inclusive, ever abundant and meant to be expressed through our action in the world. We invite you to bring your own spiritual journey to Trinity on the Hill, where no part of you needs to be left at the door. Please know that from whatever tradition you come and wherever you are in your journey of faith... YOU ARE WELCOME HERE.

All are invited to receive the consecrated bread and wine of the Eucharist. Please come to the altar rail when invited to do so by the Usher. You may stand, sit, or kneel. If you do not wish to come forward, communion will be brought to you.

If you have questions about our church, spirituality, or anything else, give us a call at (505) 662-5107. For more information, visit www.latoth.org.

We are so glad that you are here today.
May you feel the love of Christ and the warmth of our fellowship.

PLEASE NOTE: Our services are live-streamed. If you wish to avoid the possibility of appearing on camera, please sit in the northeast corner of the Sanctuary.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES NEEDED FOR REFUGEE STUDENTS

Interfaith Los Alamos, for the fifth year in a row, is requesting that the very generous folks of Los Alamos consider once again donating backpacks loaded with school supplies for newly arrived refugee students. This year there will be about 150 refugee students starting in Albuquerque public schools next week, including boys and girls ages K-12.

The organization that resettles immigrants and refugees in the State of New Mexico, Lutheran Family Services, has once again reached out and asked for our help. They say that the donations from Los Alamos are most helpful because they are backpacks already loaded with supplies and ready for school. The specific need is for new backpacks each loaded with the required age-appropriate school supplies. We have a collection box here at TOTH.

We have a full list of the school supplies in the TOTH office and posted today in the narthex. Take a picture of the list with your phone! The deadline for donations is August 21.

Note: Time is short! And this weekend is the New Mexico tax holiday — a great time to buy school supplies!

And also with you.

Celebrant

Let us pray.

Grant to us, Lord, we pray, the spirit to think and do always those things that are right, that we, who cannot exist without you, may by you be enabled to live according to your will; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The First Lesson (provides insights into the working of God in the history of the chosen people)

Genesis 15:1-6

Pew Bible page 10

After the Reading, the Reader says

Reader: The Word of the Lord

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalms 33:12-22

Exultate, just!

- 12 Happy is the nation whose God is the LORD! *
happy the people he has chosen to be his own!
- 13 The LORD looks down from heaven, *
and beholds all the people in the world.
- 14 From where he sits enthroned he turns his gaze *
on all who dwell on the earth.
- 15 He fashions all the hearts of them *
and understands all their works.
- 16 There is no king that can be saved by a mighty army; *
a strong man is not delivered by his great strength.
- 17 The horse is a vain hope for deliverance; *
for all its strength it cannot save.
- 18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon those who fear him, *
on those who wait upon his love,
- 19 To pluck their lives from death, *
and to feed them in time of famine.
- 20 Our soul waits for the LORD; *
he is our help and our shield.
- 21 Indeed, our heart rejoices in him, *
for in his holy Name we put our trust.
- 22 Let your loving-kindness, O LORD, be upon us, *
as we have put our trust in you.

The Children's Sermon: Sam McRae

The Sermon (the homilist reflects on one or more of the scriptures): Father Raymond Raney

A moment of silence follows to allow for reflection on the homily.

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,

the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;

he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;

he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

The Leader and People pray responsively

In peace, we pray to you, Lord God.

Silence

Leader: Let us say together the prayer for rain.

People: O God, heavenly Father, who by your Son Jesus Christ has promised to all those who seek your kingdom and its righteousness all things necessary to sustain their life: Send us, we entreat you, in this time of need, such moderate rain and showers, that we may receive the fruits of the earth, to our comfort and to your honor.

Leader: O God, whose love encircles us; sustain those who respond as wildfires roar, keep them safe from harm and hold them in thy sheltering embrace so that they may complete these burdensome tasks, return home to their families.

People: Keep their lives and the lives of all whom they protect safe from harm.

Leader: We pray that you look with loving-kindness on the people of Ukraine, as they struggle to live their lives in time of great uncertainty and fear. Grant that the goals of those who would terrorize and intimidate the people of Ukraine may continue to be thwarted,

People: and that in these times of trouble all people, of every faith, race and ethnicity may be drawn yet more closely in bonds of shared amity, respect, and purpose.

Leader: We pray that in this time of strife the evil we oppose will not turn us from our purpose to achieve peace, unity and concord among the nations of the earth, and we raise our prayers -

People: For all who work for justice, freedom, and peace.

Leader: For all people in their daily life and work;

People: For our families, friends, and neighbors, and for those who are alone.

People: For the victims of hunger, fear, injustice, and oppression.

Leader: For all who are in danger, sorrow, or any kind of trouble;

Silence (The People may add their own thanksgivings)

Leader: Hear Us, Lord.

People: And assist us in being grateful for all we have by your gracious will.

Leader: We ask your blessing on all who celebrate their birthdays and anniversaries this week, especially Paul Pope, Tom Burr, Amelia Kirkland, Mark Hunsinger, and Ruth and Joe Cox;

People: May they be blessed beyond measure.

Leader: We will exalt you, O God our King;

People: And praise your Name for ever and ever.

Leader: We pray for all who have died, especially James Aplington, Dianne Marquez, ... that they may have a place in your eternal kingdom.

Silence (The People may add their own petitions)

Leader: Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them;

People: Who put their trust in you.

Leader: Let us also pray for our transition.

People: Look graciously on your Church of Trinity on the Hill, and so guide the minds of those who shall choose a rector for this parish, and the hearts of priests who may be called to this Parish, that we may receive a faithful pastor, who will care for your people and equip us for our ministries; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Celebrant adds a concluding Collect

O Lord our God, accept the fervent prayers of your people; in the multitude of your mercies, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O lover of souls, and to you we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

The Deacon or Celebrant says

We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

A moment of Silence may be kept.

All say together

God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

The Celebrant concludes with an absolution.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

May the peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Ministers and People may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth.

But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh. For in these last days you sent Jesus to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In Christ, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In Christ, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

We remember Christ's death,

We proclaim Christ's resurrection,

We await Christ's coming in glory;

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Savior of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us in the sacrifice of Jesus Christ, through whom we are acceptable to you, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your children; through Jesus Christ our Savior, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. AMEN.

At the conclusion of the prayer, the Celebrant invites everyone to join in the Lord's Prayer.

The Lord's Prayer

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread.

A period of silence is kept.

The congregation then joins in the Fraction Anthem

Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Agnus Dei

Hymnal S161

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world:
have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the sins of the world: grant us peace.

The intincted hosts are given to the communicants with these words

The Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ keep thee in everlasting life. [Amen.]

A Prayer for those not present to receive

Lord Christ, I pray that though I cannot receive you today in the physical presence of my community, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Post-Communion Prayer (please stand as you are able)

God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.
