Daniel 12:1-3

Psalm 16

Hebrews 10:11-14, 19-25

Mark 13:1-8

Old Testament

Daniel 12:1-3

The Lord spoke to Daniel in a vision and said, “At that time Michael, the great prince, the protector of your people, shall arise. There shall be a time of anguish, such as has never occurred since nations first came into existence. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. Those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever.”

The Psalm

Psalm 16

Conserva me, Domine

- 1 Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in | you; *
I have said to the LORD, "You are my Lord,
my good above all | other."
- 2 All my delight is upon the godly that are in the | land, *
upon those who are noble among the | people.
- 3 But those who run after other | gods *
shall have their troubles | multiplied.
- 4 Their libations of blood I will not | offer, *
nor take the names of their gods upon my | lips.
- 5 O LORD, you are my portion and my | cup; *
it is you who uphold my | lot.
- 6 My boundaries enclose a pleasant | land; *
indeed, I have a goodly | heritage.
- 7 I will bless the LORD who gives me | counsel; *
my heart teaches me, night after | night.
- 8 I have set the LORD always be- | fore me; *
because he is at my right hand I shall not | fall.
- 9 My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit re- | joices; *
my body also shall rest in | hope.
- 10 For you will not abandon me to the | grave, *
nor let your holy one see the | Pit.
- 11 You will show me the path of | life; *
in your presence there is fullness of joy,
and in your right hand are pleasures for ever- | more.

The Epistle

Hebrews 10:11-14 (15-18) 19-25

Every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, “he sat down at the right hand of God,” and since then has been waiting “until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet.” For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified.

Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

The Gospel

Mark 13:1-8

As Jesus came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, “Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!” Then Jesus asked him, “Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.”

When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, “Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?” Then Jesus began to say to them, “Beware that no one leads you astray. Many will come in my name and say, ‘I am he!’ and they will lead many astray. When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birthpangs.”
